

NICKY'S NEWS

Hi everyone

It has been a very eventful year for me personally. My son Sam and my daughter Jennifer both became homeowners and parents this year. I now have 3 lovely grandchildren, Josiah (3), Eliana (6 months) and Zac (4 months). As you can imagine this takes up a lot of our spare time, but we love it!

My role at CMM is very much an admin one, but I do enjoy arranging Roger's itinerary and making sure he gets to where he is supposed to be on the right date at the right time. As you will know Roger is co-presenting a Christian radio show called 'Heart & Soul' and this has inevitably involved me with some of the admin. This has been an interesting 'walk down memory lane' for me as I have been asked to contact people who I have not heard of for many years, but who are still in some kind of ministry.

A highlight this year was our holiday in Florence. What a wonderful city. It did mean that I missed Roger's Big Birthday Bash and I am sorry about that as I do love seeing people who I only normally get to speak to on the telephone.

I am looking forward to spending time with my family over Christmas and wish you all a very peaceful and blessed time.
