Please complete the application form opposite and return to CMM along with a £5 registration fee*. Singers will also need to bring or buy a copy of the vocal score or words copy. They will be available on the day or can be bought in advance from Tim at the CMM office. CDs and part-learning recordings are also available.

Singers and instrumentalists of all abilities are most welcome (instrumentalists, your parts are aimed at grade IV, although less experienced players are also welcome).

As there are fire safety limits, audience also must book in advance. In past events the audience has sometimes been unticketed, but to help cover costs of the venue, the cost for the audience is also £5.

*Discounts available: under 16s £3 (although do be aware the day is not aimed at children), groups of 10 or more adults £4
