

SOPHIE'S SCRIBBLES

Hello everyone,

What a year 2022 has been! It has been another packed year for me in my role at Christian Music Ministries. This year I have enjoyed being part of the launch of the Songs of Easter collection and the revised edition of Saints Alive! - Our Saints Alive! musical in a day event in July being a real highlight of the year for me and it was a joy to see so many people there to learn the musical and celebrate Roger and Mary's golden wedding anniversary together. I have also been lucky enough to go away with CMM on two music weeks this year at Beechwood Court, Conwy and Scargill House, Yorkshire Dales. The rest of my time at CMM has been spent working in the office and taunting Tim's dog, Teddy, with sausage and egg sandwiches - courtesy of Jane, of course!

In other news, I moved house in November! Although there were some ups and downs in the process, it has been lovely to get settled in to a new home in Bromsgrove - just 10 minutes away from where I was previously living in Finstall. I have also embarked on a new relationship earlier this year with my boyfriend, Jon, who has been a real blessing and has of course enriched my year greatly. I do still operate my little online shop, Resincerely Yours, where I create and sell homemade pieces using resin. Thankfully it is something I still find quite therapeutic and get enjoyment from.

That just leaves me to wish you all a very merry Christmas and a happy new year! I hope that your 2022 was a positive year but if it wasn't, I hope that 2023 can be a fresh beginning for you and will be filled with blessing.

Sophie x
